Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Infinity Charter School's Board of Trustees. As an introduction to our school and its mission, please examine the attached materials. All candidates will attend a Prospective Parent Information Meeting held at the school, or arrange for a personal tour, which includes a classroom visit. In addition, you will need to attend a Board meeting. Further, in order for the Nominating Committee of the Board to review your qualifications, please submit the attached application with a current resume. Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please feel free to contact the school at 717.238.1880.
